

Richmond & District Beekeepers’ Association

Registered Charity No: XN 63139

Application for Membership

The subscription for Full Membership to the Association is £35 per annum. From this we send £24 to the Yorkshire Beekeepers Association, of which £21 is then allocated to the British Beekeepers Association. Through this affiliation with the BBKA, a member is covered for Third Party Public Liability Insurance and Products Insurance. From the subscription, a further £2 is paid to Bee Diseases Insurance (BDI), which covers beekeepers for up to 3 colonies in respect of losses caused by statutorily notifiable honeybee diseases and pests. Additional colonies can be insured on payment of further premiums (the rates are available upon request from the Treasurer): - all colonies within the same apiary must be insured. Insurance is valid JanDec but payments made after 31st March give cover only after 40 days. This is not meant to discourage beginners merely to explain what happens to your subscription.

Friends of the Association who attend Apiary meetings, lectures and or wish to be included on the News Letter mailing list, are asked to donate £10 per annum. This does not give Insurance Cover or affiliation to other Associations.
